

It's the Season for Wearable Custom Products!

Printed Patches

Summer is the season for golf shirts and baseball caps. These are popular products amongst the promotional industry. Adding patches is a great way to customize these and other wearable promo items. Custom printed patches will apply to many fabrics and can be sewn-on or ironed-on. Patches are ideal for adding your company logo or brand on clothing, canvas bags, athletic gear, and more.

Iron-On Transfers and Labels

Iron-ons are a great product for promoting your brand on t-shirts or canvas bags which are commonly used as give-aways for events or shows. Iron-ons on shirts and aprons are also a great way to keep staff uniformed and on brand.

Temporary Tattoos

Great weather means plenty of outdoor concerts, charities and events! Temporary tattoos are a unique way to promote your event or to communicate your message. They are fun for all ages and they are easy to apply. Get creative and order your custom Temporary Tattoos!
